

Welcome to The Sole Ingredient Catering

We are a Chicago-based, full-service catering company dedicated to serving corporate teams, non-profits, and hosts of milestone celebrations. We focus on dependable catering solutions that bring people together through exceptional food, vibrant culture, and soulful hospitality.

Chef Loren Devaroe's journey is rooted in courage and a sacred promise made to her mother. After years in corporate America, she stepped out on faith to pursue her true calling. Following two years of study at Kendall College, she blended her entrepreneurial spirit with a passion for culinary artistry.

What began in 2009 as "The Lunch Box" evolved into the thriving Chicago-based enterprise, The Sole Ingredient Corporate Catering. For Chef Devaroe, food is a canvas—transcending simple sustenance to be expressed with beauty and intention. We don't just cater; we captivate by connecting people through the joy of food.

Welcome to the family!
